

EMERGENCY CONTACT

From time to time trainers may have to cancel a workshop due to an emergency or an immediate concern. When an emergency event occurs and the ILLINET office is closed (over a weekend or holiday) the trainer should call the following emergency telephone number to cancel:

Suzanne Schriar, ILLINET/OCLC Director: (217) 793-1848
Use for an emergency when the ILLINET office is closed.

Call Cheryl Walker at 217-782-0974 for other non-emergency cancellations or to reschedule a workshop.

The ILLINET/OCLC Services Office will provide:

- Information sessions for potential users at a central location
- Telephone assistance with users who have questions about OCLC services.
- Workshops on demand. Interested participants may contact the ILLINET/OCLC office to inquire about scheduling a workshop in your area. If a sufficient number of participants can be guaranteed, and we can locate an available trainer, we will work with you to set up needed training.
- Advantage Program. If you cannot attend a regularly scheduled workshop, come to the Illinois State Library for one-on-one training.
